Family friendly carpet

Sun Protected Fibre (SPF™)

A revolutionary carpet technology that provides long lasting colour on your floor.

SPF™ technology helps prevent your carpet fading from the sun's harsh UV rays.

Designed for colour, the Redbook SPF™ range has a wide palette of the latest colours, so you can find the perfect match for every colour scheme under the sun. The SPF™ 15 Year Colourfast Guarantee* gives you assurance that your carpet colour will last longer and stay vibrant.

For vibrant, longer lasting colour on your floor, look for the SPF™ badge on selected premium Redbook and Redbook total carpets.

Practicality

Redbook Carpets knows the demands of family life. So we've designed our carpets to be hard-wearing and practical. This means that your carpet will not only hold its shape and appearance well over the years, it will also resist everyday spills and stains.

Colour

Colour is one of the most important factors to consider when building a new home or renovating. Redbook Carpets offers a stunning range of the latest colours, designed specifically to work in your family home. From the fabulous selection of Redbook carpets, there is a colour sure to suit your taste.

Warmth

In winter, home is where your family goes to stay warm. Redbook carpets provide the perfect indoor environment. The thermal insulation properties of Redbook carpets hold in warmth, keeping your family cosy during the winter months.

Comfort

Manufactured using some of the softest yarns available, Redbook Carpets bring comfort to your home. They help create a quieter and more peaceful indoor environment - so even when you have a full house, you can still hear yourself think.

Stain protection

The Redbook Carpets have advanced protection against dirt and most common household spills and stains. The stain protection treatment makes keeping your carpet clean and looking new easier - so you needn't worry about little kids (or big kids!) ruining your carpet.

Style

Redbook Carpets provides your family with a wide selection of styles to choose from. Whether you prefer the luxurious look of a deep plush pile or the textured appearance of a loop pile, there's a Redbook carpet to suit your home.

SPF™ (Sun Protected Fibre)

SPF™ technology helps prevent your carpet fading from the sun's harsh UV rays. Look for the SPF™ badge on selected premium Redbook and Redbook total products for assurance that your carpet colour will last longer and stay vibrant.

Carpet that lets you live the way you want...totally

TOTAL

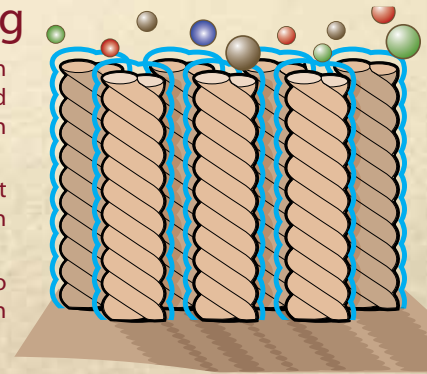

No more reserving the lounge room for special occasions only! Entertain friends or enjoy snacks in front of the TV with your family, with the confidence of the superior stain protection of Redbook Carpets with total technology.

Redbook Carpets with total technology have advanced protection against dirt and most common household spills and stains*, delaying stain absorption and making stain treatment easy!

As well as easy cleaning and maintenance, Redbook carpets with total technology now also provide added protection against fading. The introduction of the new SPF (Sun Protected Fibre) technology now also provides you with a wide colour palette and the confidence to open up your home.

total fibre coating

- Coating of the total fibre from top to bottom provides advanced protection against stain and soil penetration
- Spills bead on top of the carpet delaying absorption for easier stain treatment
- Bonding of the stain treatment to every fibre provides better stain resistance durability.
